

DELL SELF - Professional Speaker

Turning the Ordinary into the Extraordinary!

You're a woman of God, but does your Christian walk seem to have more trips and falls than walking? Do you lack direction? Do household organization, meal planning, parenting, and spiritual growth seem like illusive carrots on the end of a stick? Do you feel locked out of everything? It doesn't have to be that way. Let me help you find some of those keys to open your doors.

"This talk is an eye opener. You won't leave the same as you came." Ann H.

Life is Short: Don't Spend It Looking for Your Keys!- A light hearted, yet thorough, look at organizing our lives and de-cluttering by asking three basic questions: What, Who, and Where. This talk addresses bringing order to our homes, our personal time, as well as our spiritual lives.

Get Your House in Order - A homeschool mom since 1999, Dell brings insight, encouragement, and practical advice for those beginning homeschooling. Includes a number of the components of "Life is Short..."

"Engaging! Dell grabs your attention and holds it. I'm looking forward to hearing her again." Tracy H.

Only on Mondays: Meal Planning Made Simple! - This engaging workshop focuses on putting a balanced meal together easily and with equal emphasis on saving time, money, and your sanity. This workshop puts an end to the "What's for dinner?" dilemma. Put a complete menu together - before you leave the workshop!

"I like being a mom again." Pam W.

Keys to Successful Parenting: Revealed!

Learn the keys to successful parenting and unlock the door to a new relationship between you and your child.

"Inspiring & encouraging. You can't help but be blessed!" Denise T.

Using the Word of God, Dell pulls from her resource of decades of living in Christ to share her unique way of revealing the extraordinary love of God through ordinary, every day living. These talks can be customized to your specific needs.
